Hold a County Convention on Saturday and Adopt a Platform of Principles.

Pursuant to a published call, the Work-ingmen of Ohio county held a Conven-tion at the Court House on Saturday. The Convention was announced to meet at 10 A. M., but as the Circuit Court was in session and the court room occupied, no organization was effected until the afternoon.

At 23 o'clock r. M. the Convention met in the court room. The attendance was very small, not more than twenty-five being present.

The assembly was called to order by Mr. Isaac Barton, who stated that the object of the Executive Committee in calling the Convention was to effect a more preparated correlation, and to allow the convention was to effect a more preparated correlation, and to allow the convention was to effect a more preparated to remain the convention and to allow the convention and the convention

Mr. Thoburn, of the Third Ward, was called upon by a gentleman in the lobby for aspeech, while the committees were absent, and in response arose and said that he was not prepared to make any remarks. The object of the Convention was not clear to him, but if it meant greenbacks he was with the delegates all the time. He had come to the Convention merely as a pupil, and not with the expectation of taking an active part in it.
Mr. T. W. Scott, of Bellaire, who was present, was called for, and coming forward asked the gentlemen of the Convention to excuse him from making aspeech, as he was entirely unprepared for it. He would not undertake to address them without first making some preparation.

Kenny Gow.—Mr. Joseph Murphy, the popular Irish comedian, will appear in the Opera House on Wednesday and Thursday evenings next in "Kerry Gow," of which the New York Mercuryanys: "Kerry Gow was produced at the Park Theatre on the 12th, with Mr. Joseph Murphy, a comedian of excellent repute, as the hero. It is a powerfully written drama in four acts, and teems with capital situations. The text fairly bristles with wit and repartee, the action is rapid and well sustained. "Mr. Murphy's splendid physique, nonchalant, ready witand natural interpretation of the jolly, rollicking Irishman, established immediate popularity with an exceedingly large and critical audience." stituents, the local commissioners of Madison sub-district have decided to open manison sub-district have decided to open an evening school in the Seventh Ward school building. It will be remembered that the matter was left to their judgment by the Board of Education, Mr. H. B. Ferguson, a promising young attorney, was selected as the Principal of the school. Tite Union Square Theatre Company, which was booked to appear at the Opera House on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week, have cancelled their dates. Mr. August Pitou, the manager, writes to Mr. Hamilton from the oil regions that owing to bad business the company has disbanded. This company played "The Danichess." THE temperance work has sgain com

The sale of reserved seats will commence at the box office this morning at 9 o'clock.

Narrow Escape.—On Saturday afternoon three men working on a platform in an anteroom in the third story of the Washington Hall building had a narrow escape from instant death. The platform upon which they were working gave way, and they fell a distance of eight or nine feet, two of them striking the edge of the hole left for the elevator, and the third within a few feet of the same. The two men fell with their bodies about evenly balanced on the edge of the hole, and had in not been for the prompt assistance rendered by their comrade would no doubt have fallen through the hole to the lower floor of the building, and been crushed to death.

December 23.—Arrived—Carrie Hogan, Fair Play. Up—E. O. Stonard. Down—Yazoo Valley. Clear and pleasant.

CINCINNATI, October 17.—River. 4 feet Tempest, Wheeling. Departed —Tempest, south. Donnally has laid over till to-morrow to wait for water. She is drawing 4½ feet and there is only 4 feet out to Louisville. Carries of the third within a few feet of the same. The two men fell with their bodies about evenly balanced on the edge of the hole, and had in not been for the prompt assistance rendered by their comrade would no doubt have fallen through the hole to the lower floor of the building, and been crushed to death. menced. A meeting was held in Ott's Hall last night, and addresses were made by several gentlemen. Meetings will be held as usual this week. Now, as the finances of the Union have loomed up, some of the big guns may be expected to orate in the above hall scon. THE first of a series of shooting matches between members of the Mathews Light Guards, for a silver medal, took place on Saturday silvernom. Sergeant Franzheim's equad scored 18S, and Lieut. Linch's equad scored 18S, and Lieut. Linch's equad scored 18S, and Lieut. 250 yards. Another contest will take place next Saturday.

Fingers Crushed.—On Saturday alternoon Patrick Finnegan, a workman employed in laying a stone pavement in Bridgeport, between the Cloveland & Pittsburgh railroad passenger and freight depots, had several fingers crushed by a large stone falling upon them.

BOOMED FOR THE POLICE COURT.— Last night two unfortunates had been booked for the city cooler, viz: Henry Bushman, a veteran fusilier, was run in for disorderly conduct, some-thing unusual for Henry. Wm. Miller was drunk, and lordly drunk. He was cooled.

Marated and yet unhappy. How many a home has been robbed of sunshine and happiness and rendered sad and desolate by the loss of some dear and petted child. This is a dangerous season for children, and parents should keep Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup handy.
